not guarantee that the airline will honor your ticket or tickets. If you do not use one of the flights in your reservation, the airline will cancel your remaining itinerary. You agree to indemnify us against any airline claims for the difference between the full fare of your actual itinerary and the value of the ticket or tickets that you purchased.

12. PRICE INCREASES AND EXTRA CHARGES

Travel arrangements involving airline and cruise components are subject to supplemental price increases that may be imposed by the service provider and/or government after you have completed your purchase. You hereby consent to any such price increases and authorize your credit card to be used for them.

Outside the United States, travel suppliers such as hotels, car rental companies, and local tour operators may charge extra fees and taxes as permitted by local law. Information about such charges may not always be available to us when we make your reservations, and we are not responsible for informing you about such charges.

13. RENTAL CAR INSURANCE It is solely your responsibility to determine the applicability of any pre-existing insurance coverage that you may have, in which case you should travel with the applicable insurance information so that it can be provided if necessary. Car rental suppliers may offer several insurance alternatives as incremental and completely distinct transactions at the time of pick-up. In some countries, this insurance may be mandatory, and the cost of such insurance could exceed the car rental price. We do not offer guidance on such insurance requirements, and we are not responsible for informing you about them.

14. FOREIGN CURRENCY

Currency rates quoted on the Web Sites are based on various publicly available sources. Rates are not verified as accurate, and actual rates may vary. Purchases made on the Web Sites are transacted exclusively in United States Dollars (USD). If you make a purchase from us using a non-USD-denominated credit or debit card, please be aware that, due to the constant fluctuation in exchange rates, our charge to your card or the estimated charge amount we provide you, may differ based on the exchange rate at the time you make your reservation versus the rate at the time the charge is reflected on your credit card statement. In the event that we must credit your account, we will refund the exact USD amount initially charged and will not be responsible for any fluctuations in exchange rates which may cause differences in your billing statement.

15. POWER OF ATTORNEY

As our client, you hereby appoint us to be your attorneys-in-fact for the purpose of signing all documents necessary to purchase and issue airline tickets, tours, cruises, hotel bookings guarantees for late arrival, car bookings, and other travel services as may be offered through the Web Sites. You authorize any of the attorneys-in-fact to sign credit card authorizations for said purchases whenever any of them receives an Internet booking request reasonably believed to be from you or someone acting on your behalf, requesting those tickets be charged to this credit card account. You agree to pay for all such purchases and release us from any liability that may arise out pursuant to this power of attorney. At our request, at any time before or after your trip, you agree to sign a credit card charge form and to send us any proof of your identity that we may require. If we suspect that an attempted charge is fraudulent, we retain the right to void the transaction immediately.
